

December 18, 2009

Washington, DC – Next week, Rep. Ben Ray Luján will travel to Cuba, Farmington, and Tierra Amarilla where he will hold several community events. In Cuba, he will hold a discussion on job creation and economic development with business leaders and community leaders. In Farmington, he will volunteer with local community organizations as part of his “Lend a Hand” tour and hold open office hours. In Tierra Amarilla, he will hold a discussion on job creation and economic development with business leaders and community leaders.

Rep. Luján has held a similar events on job creation and economic development in Rio Rancho and Las Vegas. Rep. Luján is a member of the House Democratic Caucus’ Jobs Task Force. Since November, Rep. Luján has volunteered with local community organizations as part of his “Lend a Hand” tour. During Rep. Luján’s “Lend a Hand” tour, is visiting community organizations throughout New Mexico and encouraging New Mexicans to lend a hand during the holiday season.

What: Job Creation and Economic Development Discussion with Business and Community Leaders in Cuba

When: Monday, December 21, 2009 5:30 to 6:30 pm (MT)

Where: El Bruno’s Restaurant, Cuba, NM

What: Rep. Luján Visits a Farmington Food Bank

When: Tuesday, December 22, 2009 9:30 to 10:30 am (MT)

Where: ECHO, Inc., 401 South Commercial, Farmington, NM

What: Open Office Hours

When: Tuesday, December 22, 2009 11:00 to 1:00 pm (MT)

Where: Rep. Luján's Farmington District Office, Executive Conference Room, 800 Municipal Drive, Farmington, NM

What: Job Creation and Economic Development Discussion with Business and Community Leaders in Tierra Amarilla

When: Tuesday, December 22, 2009 5:00 to 7:00 pm (MT)

Where: Chama Valley Schools Administration Building, Board Room, Highway 531, Tierra Amarilla, NM